

UNIVERSITY OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, COLUMBIA, MO.

Has departments of Language, Science, History, Economics, Philosophy, Pedagogy, Law, Medicine, Engineering (Civil, Electrical, Mechanical), Agriculture, Horticulture, Entomology, Veterinary Science, and Mechanic Arts—all at Columbia, Mo. Instruction is given in Military Tactics also, and in Stenography and Business Forms. New Gymnasium for men and another for women with bath rooms and fine equipment. Best athletic grounds in the state. The director of the gymnasium is an athlete and a doctor of medicine. All departments open to women. Fees small. Campus contains ten buildings supplied with water, steam heat and electricity. New Greenhouse and Laboratory of Horticulture, Botany and Entomology. New Laboratories for Physiology, Bacteriology and Pathology in the Medical Department. Equipment for Scientific and Technical Work all new. Fifty-nine Professors and Instructors in the whole University. For Cadetships apply to your Senator or Representative; for Scholarships (Senate Bill No. 53), apply to the clerk of your county court. For catalogue address J. W. Monser, Columbia, Mo. The School of Mines and Metallurgy, at Rolla, is a department of the University.